THE WOMAN WITH THE SERPENT'S TONGUE.

The following poem is by William Watson, and has stirred up the literary animals of the other side. Mr. Watson and wife are now sojourning in this country from England. The poem is a whip of scorpions to the gossip, male and female, and is worth reading and heeding:

She is not old, she is not young,
The Woman with the Serpent's Tongue;
The haggard cheek, the hungry eye,
The poisoned words that wildly fly,
The famished face, the fevered hand—
Who slights the worthiest in the land,
Seers at the just, contemns the brave,
And blackens goodness in its grave.

In truthful numbers be she sung,
The Woman with the Serpent's Tongue,
Concerning whom, Fame hints at things
Told but in shrugs and whisperings;
Ambitious from her natal hour,
And scheming all her life for power;
With little left of seemly pride;
With venomous fangs she cannot hide;
Who half makes love to you today,
Tomorrow gives her guest away,
Burnt up within by that strange soul
She cannot slake, or yet control;
Malignant-lipped, unkind, unsweet;
Past all example indiscreet;
Hectic, and always overstrung—
The Woman with the Serpent's Tongue.

To think that such as she can mar
Names that among the noblest are!
That hands like hers can touch the springs
That move who knows what men and things?
That on her will their fates have hung!—
The Woman with the Serpent's Tongue.

TWELVE hundred unclaimed estates of soldiers and sailors who died in the National Soldiers' Home, Dayton, are now in the hands of the United States Government. The value of these estates is nearly $3,000,000. Suit was instituted by United States Commissioner F. W. HOWELL of the Dayton District to cause the estates to revert to the county of Montgomery, on the ground that the decedents were citizens of Montgomery county, where they voted at all elections.

SPEAKER CANNON's brand of party management is just a little too rank for the G. O. P. of today. There is one Cannon that the Republican party can well afford to fire at any old time, and his front name is JOE G.

EVEN now there is a diversity of opinion regarding the efficacy of vaccination as a preventative of smallpox. That is to say, people can be found who assert that the possible harm from inoculation with virus which may carry disease germs outweighs the benefits supposed to be derived, and so they oppose vaccination. There is just enough fact to give color to their contention; but practically everyone now believes in vaccination. It has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the medical authorities of the United States Army that typhoid fever may be combatted with success by means of inoculation with an anti-typhoid vaccine, and already about 1,000 men in the service, mostly members of the Army Hospital Corps and commissioned officers, have been vaccinated with virus sent out by the Army Medical Museum.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Bob Warner, An Old Timer, in the Toils of the Law.

Bob Warner, an old timer who has served several terms in the Pen, was caught dead to right Saturday night when he entered Joseph H. Dodson & Son's business place at the corner of Second and Wall, and for the time being his good luck remained with him, as he managed to give the officer the slip and escape to Aberdeen on the other side of the river, where he was later arrested by Chief Ort and brought back and jailed.

On the same night an attempt was made to break into Dennison's store in West Third street, but was scared away; G. W. Geisel's store in West Second street was entered by a rear window route—the fellow was evidently after money, as the cash drawer was the only thing showing signs of being disturbed; Charles Owens' saloon at the corner of Front and Market streets also had an unwelcome caller.

This is the seventh time in eight months that J. H. Dodson & Son's business place has been raided, and now that patience has ceased to be a virtue in their case, they are determined to prosecute Warner to the full extent of the law. Bob is only one of a number of bad citizens who are engaged in the business, and they, too, will carry the pitcher to the well once too often, before long, let it be hoped.

ELKS MEMORIAL EXERCISES

At Washington Opera-House Yesterday—Beautiful and Solemn Ceremonies—Large Turnout of People

Notwithstanding the inclement weather the annual Memorial Service of Maysville Lodge No. 704, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at the Washington Opera-house yesterday afternoon, was attended by the largest assemblage ever gathered on a like occasion—nearly every chair in the auditorium was occupied, while many found seats in the balcony.

The stage was artistically decorated with Southern smilax intertwined here and there with white and pink chrysanthemums. Ten lighted candles—one for each departed brother —occupied prominent positions, while the speaker's stand was appropriately dressed in mourning, and as a whole the stage effect was very pretty and quite in consonance with the solemn occasion.

Dr. P. G. Smoot was Master of Ceremonies and, of course, acquitted himself in his accustomed good form and pleasing manner.

Mrs. C. E. Geisel presided at the piano, and it is needless to say that as accompanist her exquisite touch was not the least pleasing feature of a charming and delightful musical program.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rev. F. W. Harrop, Pastor of the Third Street Methodist Church, who implored a divine blessing upon the Order and those present in almost feeling supplication.

Next on the program was Mr. Fred O. Nuetzel of Louisville Lodge No. 8, in a solo, "Out of the Depths." Mr. Nuetzel is not an entire stranger to music lovers in this city, his splendid voice having charmed hundreds of our citizens at the Elks Reunion here this fall, and on yesterday he added fresh laurels to his fame and won unstinted encomiums as a sweet singer.
He also sang another solo, "For All Eternity"
in good voice and form.

Maysville's silver-throated songstress, Miss Amy King, never appeared to better advantage than on yesterday in her two numbers,
"Crossing the Bar" and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," in both of which her pure, sweet voice captivated and enthralled in willing captivity all who had the pleasure of hearing her in the two solos.

Dr. Thomas Hunt Stucky of Louisville Lodge No. 8 delivered a eulogy that was beautiful in conception, thought and word-painting, and the profound attention accorded the speaker was ample testimony of the appreciation of his audience in his well-rounded periods.

The entire program as published in THE LEDGER was carried out, the exercises closing with a benediction by Rev. F. W. Harrop.

LUCKY BOY.

Stanley Mitchell of Washington, while in the city the other day, dropped a $10 bill in Second street and did not discover his loss for some time thereafter. He retraced his steps and found the bill lying near the curbing in the proximity of Market street. He had the money in his pantaloons pocket, and in removing his hand from his pocket to shake hands with a friend the bill evidently came out with it unnoticed, at the time, by Mr. Mitchell. What a Christmas gift that $10 bill would have been to one of the numerous hangers-on in Market street had he found it.

Avoid Harsh Drugs Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injuries to the Bowels

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

I honestly believe that I have the best constipation treatment ever devised. My faith in it is so strong that I sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action.
They are made of a recent chemical discovery.
Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not gripe, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at my store—The Rexall Store. Thos. J. Cheno. et h.

MAYSVILLE'S FOREMOST CLOTHIERS.

PUBLIC LEDGER
MAYSVILLE, KY.

Circuit Court and County Court convened this morning and the City Dads palaver tonight.

The Mason County Board of Control met in this city Saturday afternoon and dispatched routine business. The reports from the county are cheering as regards the willingness of the growers to stand by President Lebus and associates in the litigation being waged against the Barley Tobacco Society by certain of its members of the 1906 and 1907 pools. Two members of the State Board will be here this week from Lexington to go over the county and make desirable selections for warehouses.

The Maysville Brick Yards, one of the largest and most important industries of this city, closed down Saturday after a most successful season. The output was over 5,000,000 brick, all of which found a ready market at good prices. The Pressed Brick Yards are still in active operation with plenty of orders to fill. If Maysville had twenty more manufacturing industries of diverse kind added to what she has, and all were operated as successfully as the above, this old town would be humming and strictly in it.

AS IT SHOULD BE

Chief of Police Puts in Force a New Order Governing Market Street
—No More Loitering—Must Keep on the Move

The East side of Market street between Second and Third streets of a Saturday night is something fierce. So thoroughly occupied is the passway with half drunken men and disreputable characters that it is a matter of some effort for a pedestrian to worm his way through, so densely is the thoroughfare packed with the above classes.

Saturday night Chief of Police Ort gave instructions to his men to clear the streets of such characters, and as a result of the above order six women and three men were incarcerated in Hotel de McIlvain. They will face Judge John L. Whitaker in the Police Court this afternoon and pay the penalty usually imposed in such cases.

The move is a splendid one, and it is hoped the Chief will keep the order in full force hereafter, that it may be possible for a lady to pass that way without having to run the gauntlet of having her ears greeted with foul language.

QUALITY GROCERS.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick fellows that count—and cut.

The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

WHEREFORE IS THE WHY OF THE WHICHNESS OF THESE THINGS?

Editor Ledger: A lady owns a little shack down on Sutton street.

Her tenant gave notice to her Agent that there was a small hole and a single loose brick in the sidewalk.

The Agent promised to have it fixed promptly.

That same night a Policeman swooped down on the Agent aforesaid with a reinforced complaint, backed by official authority.

Early the next morning the Agent set out for the seat of trouble, and on arrival found a slight depression in the sidewalk and a single loose brick, which had by this time been pounded quite firmly into its proper place.

But—

In getting to the trouble zone, the Agent nearly broke his darned neck stumbling over three large holes in an adjoining sidewalk—one of them from three to four feet square—and at least fifty bricks gone from that side walk!

And the one just a few steps farther down the street is nearly as bad.

Wherefore is the whichness of the whyfore? CAN U TELL?

MAKES RAPID HEADWAY

Add This Fact to Your Store of Knowledge.

Kidney disease advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Maysville citizen.

Mrs. Elmer Bridges, 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I consider Doan's Kidney Pills an excellent kidney remedy and one that deserves a trial by anyone afflicted with disordered kidneys. I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint from childhood, and as I grew older the trouble became more severe. In my efforts to find relief I used remedy after remedy, but obtained no benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved to be just what I needed, going directly to the seat of my trouble and entirely relieving me. I always keep a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills on hand in case I have a return of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Ordinary house dogs in Danville, through some unknown influence, are returning to the wild, untame state and at nightfall become as ferocious and nomadic in disposition as the wolf dogs of pioneer days. Chickens, hogs, sheep and even larger stock, fall prey to the vicious curs, which roam the fields and woodlands.
